Valentine Love & Bubbles at the Jupiter Inlet Lighthouse!

Jupiter, FL: The Jupiter Inlet Lighthouse & Museum invites couples once again to vow (or wow) their love at Valentine Toast at the Top of the Lighthouse! Couples can register for a spot at the top between 5-9 pm, February 14th. Lovebirds will meet at the Jupiter Inlet Lighthouse & Museum in Lighthouse Park and be escorted to the tower to take their love to new heights for a sweet bubbly toast for two. Whether you're warming up a relationship, popping the big question or glad you said "I do," the spectacular one-of-a-kind view and twilight climb is guaranteed to warm your hearts.

In February of 1898, Harry DuBois and his blind date, Susan Sanders, climbed the 105 steps to the top of the Jupiter Inlet Lighthouse and it was love at first sight. He promptly proposed to her.

Continuing our annual tradition, couples will have the rare opportunity to pledge their love with a beautiful tower-top view celebrating Valentine's Day. This special sweetheart opportunity is $75 per couple for 15 minutes of private toast time and romantic view of the Jupiter Inlet. One couple will be aloft at a time for this event.

Reserve your time at the top by calling the Jupiter Inlet Lighthouse and Museum at 561-747-8380 ext.101.
