The Jupiter Inlet Lighthouse & Museum re-opens following Hurricane Dorian’s visit to the Treasure Coast

September 5, 2019 – Jupiter, Florida – The Jupiter Inlet Lighthouse & Museum is once again welcoming visitors with today’s re-opening of its waterside, historic destination property, in the wake of Hurricane Dorian’s visit to the Treasure Coast. Among its many, exciting offerings, guests can enjoy exploring the grounds with visits to the Keeper’s Workshop exhibit, gift shop, and a climb to the top of the Lighthouse.

The Tindall Pioneer House will open tomorrow (Friday) afternoon.

The Museum remains closed for a routine maintenance project; guests will receive rain checks to return for complementary visits when the Museum re-opens.
