Jupiter Inlet Lighthouse & Museum closes to the public until further notice, programs and events for March & April are also canceled.

Wild & Scenic Film Festival & Autism Family Night at the Light are canceled.

March 16, 2020 – Jupiter, Fla. – The Jupiter Inlet Lighthouse & Museum is officially closed to the public until further notice. All scheduled programs, events and group tours have also been canceled. Staff will remain on site for maintenance and administrative work only. The decision was made accordance with federal, state and local guidance, in an effort protect public health.

The staff is closely monitoring information from the CDC and other agencies to determine when the Jupiter Inlet Lighthouse & Museum can safely reopen for visitation and programming.

Two major April events included in the cancelation are the Wild & Scenic Film Festival and Autism Family Night at the Light. It has not yet been determined if the Wild & Scenic Film Festival will be rescheduled.

The Jupiter Inlet Lighthouse will continue to be lit each night as an active aid-to-navigation.

Updates for the Lighthouse & Museum will be posted on www.jupiterlighthouse.org. If you need information assistance, please call 561-747-8380 x101.
