Jupiter Inlet Lighthouse & Museum Open for Tours September 23rd.

The Jupiter Inlet Lighthouse & Museum will be opening its doors for regular daytime tours on Wednesday, September 23rd. Operating hours are Wednesday-Sunday, 10 a.m.-2 p.m., with the last Lighthouse & grounds admission at 1 p.m. Visitors to the site can enjoy Lighthouse Climbs, spectacular views, beautiful historic grounds including the Tindall Pioneer House and Modica Family and The Joe Namath Foundation supported Keeper's Workshop.

The Museum Gift Shop will be closed through the end of September and will reopen October 1st.

The History Museum is currently closed but is expected to reopen in November. Guests visiting prior to its reopening, will receive a complimentary Museum voucher for a return visit.

Visitors must wear a mask and social distancing is required throughout the site, including at the top. The Lighthouse & Museum adheres to The Palm Beaches Pledge. Safety measures include frequent cleaning and sanitizing throughout the day, hand sanitizer stations at strategic locations for guests, and staff requirements to wear face masks.
